A PINE WHOOPING COUGH REMEDY.

Mothers, Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucous in the throat, soothe the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant, with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it, new friends. A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c a bottle. 3

The bay and harbor where Tom Rye succeeded last November in tying up the old, water-logged ship of democracy, that had been drifting hither and thither over the salty main for four years, became choppy and boisterous for awhile last week all because Luke Lea, one of the stewards of the democratic party, was fraternizing and consulting with his brethren here. For behold, are not all democrats brethren? As evidence that they are, see John I. Cox, M. R. Patterson and John K. Shields stand and form a triangular fortress against the common enemy—Lea and McKellar. When Ham's light began to fade from the horizon of Tennessee politics a few years ago these two knights of East Tennessee democracy never lost an opportunity to denounce Patterson. Neither did Patterson ever lose an opportunity to anathematize them. Now then, John Isaac Cox and John K. Shields are the very embodiment of party regularity and Ham Patterson is the quintessence of modern democracy. How beautiful and good it is for brethren to dwell together in the unity of faith!

BELGIUM DESTITUTION.

Another Appeal Being Made for the Dollar Christmas Fund for Belgians.

The destitution in Belgium as the result of the war is known so universally by the people generally that not much need be said as to the needs, but that a better general understanding may be had we publish the appeal that is being sent out by Henry Clews, treasurer of the Belgian relief fund. The appeal follows:

AN APPEAL TO ALL AMERICANS.

"Twelve months ago I made an appeal to Americans in behalf of The Dollar Christmas Fund for Belgians—one of the many efforts made here and in Europe to avert the threatened starvation of a nation. The response was prompt and generous. Not alone the rich contributed but even many of the very poor, with the happy result that we were able to send to Belgium a Christmas ship laden not only with Christmas good wishes but with food and clothing. Those were the days when every shipload meant lives saved. Some of our best friends were newspapers, and even little children in Sunday schools gave freely of their penny banks in behalf of other children less happy than themselves.

This year the funds at the disposal of the American Commission for Relief in Belgium have largely solved the food question. One-third of a soldier's ration—enough, at least, to keep body and soul together—is now served daily to all necessitous persons in Belgium.

"The task now undertaken by The Dollar Christmas Fund is to collect money for shoes, boots and clothes, which are most urgently needed and for which special money must be provided. The necessity is appalling because at the present time there are, roughly, 3,500,000 destitute people in Belgium and the number increases as the winter approaches. The Belgians are unable to buy shoes, boots and clothe themselves—many, even of the former wealthy, are now in the daily bread line.

"Your efforts can help to avert the suffering which confronts helpless Belgians during the coming winter.

"With your aid there will be no Belgian family without shoes this Christmas.

"All our workers are honorary and all money collected will be expended by the American Commission for Relief in Belgium. No better guarantee can be given that every penny subscribed will be wisely spent.

"There are ominous reports today of greater hardships in store for Belgium, greater strain upon endurance already so desperately taxed. One may not predict the future but it is certainly our privilege and, may I not add, our duty to appeal to Americans doubly blessed in their peaceful isolation and detachment from the vortex of horrors and bloodshed and agony of the battlefields of Europe to help those who are too poor to help themselves?

"Our Dollar Christmas Fund is in complete sympathy with every other appeal in behalf of Belgian destitute, and differs from other appeals only in the sense that the total sum received will be forwarded as A SPECIAL CHRISTMAS CONTRIBUTION from the people of this country to the destitute people of Belgium, an expression of sympathy with sorrow from one people to another and a tangible proof that Christmas good-will, even in these days of strife and bloodshed, has not disappeared from earth.

"If, as many have foretold, Belgians have heights of sacrifice and martyrdom so far unattained to scale this Winter we can at least ensure that the old men, the frail women, the little children—many of them 'orphans of war'—SHALL NOT GO UNSHOD. And without your aid, as we know, the barefooted in Belgium this Winter will be the rule rather than the exception. I ask, therefore, with great earnestness, that you send along your dollar bill—and send more if you can! All contributions should be addressed to the Treasurer and each will be promptly acknowledged.

"Henry Clews, Treasurer,
"Dollar Christmas Fund for Destitute Belgians,

"Broad Street, New York.
"P. S.—Any friends willing to collect subscriptions are invited to apply for authorized 'Dollar Christmas Fund' collecting card to Percy Bullen, 66 Broadway, New York City, Honorary Secretary of the Dollar Christmas Fund.

"Today 3,500,000 of Belgians are chiefly dependent upon the goodwill of American and Europe. Thousands of civilians have met a miserable death. The whole apparatus of economic life in Belgium, in field or factory, has been wrecked and ruined.

"No little nation in the world's long history has been more grievously stricken, yet no people can raise their heads more proudly from the dust.

"The crown of thorns is still a crown!"

The editor of the Chronicle will be glad to forward any amounts that the readers of the Chronicle may wish to send for that purpose.

WAR SITUATION.

Hard fighting going on in Serbia, with the advantage slightly with the Austrians and Germans, but they are paying a heavy price in men for what they are winning. The Bulgarians are doing heroic fighting also, and it now seems that little Serbia will soon be crushed in spite of its heroic stand. The French are trying to help them from the direction of Greece and are doing some effective fighting, but the general feeling is that the allies started too late to help Serbia to be able to render the needed aid before the Serbs are definitely beaten.

Not much being accomplished in France. The Italians are more active on their front. In Russia both sides are winning victories. Indications are that Germans may take Riga ere long, but the Russians are putting up a stubborn resistance.

Greece has stated definitely that she will not enter the war now, mainly because she feels that the help to be extended by the allies is not sufficient to accomplish the defeat of the central powers and she fears the country will be devastated if she enters the war. Roumania is expected to stay out also.
